

We need to fund technology and media centers for providing students with media literacy and Educational Tv programming services for urban school districts.